THE NATIONAL VOICE OF CLINICAL SOCIAL WORK
Strengthening IDENTITY/Preserving INTEGRITY/Advocating PARITY
WHY JOIN CSWA ?

Have you had questions about telehealth practice during the COVID-19 pandemic ?
Are you feeling isolated because of lack of contact with colleagues ?
Do you wish you had an organization that is advocating for your concerns nationally ?

All these questions can be answered by joining the Clinical Social Work Association (CSWA). CSWA works in collaboration with your state clinical society. For answers to the above questions, go to www.clinicalsocialworkassociation.org . Below is a list of the other ways that CSWA is working for you:

Up to date Practice Alerts for clinical social workers working in agencies, hospitals, schools, institutions, clinics, community mental health centers, universities, and independent practices.

Opportunities for Networking with Clinicians and Organizations committed to mental health services.

Webinars on practice and regulatory issues with Free CEUs and opportunities to review past webinars.

Free consultation with the CSWA Director of Policy and Practice, Laura Groshong, LICSW, on varied topics such as Medicare, Medicaid, HIPAA, telehealth, supervision, ethics, insurance reimbursement, practice guidelines for technology, the business of private practice, professional wills, practice guidelines and more.

Firsthand Information on Pending Congressional legislation and federal regulations governing clinical social work practice and the delivery of mental health services.

Free consultation with a health care attorney on practice issues.

Problem-solving and Networking for State Clinical Social Work Societies on organizational issues, seminars, membership, and how to influence state and national legislation on the provision of clinical social work services and on access to mental health care for our social work client populations.

National Advocacy with CSWA participating in the development of federal legislation and CSWA's membership in the Mental Health Liaison Group as well as assistance with state legislation affecting third party reimbursement and state insurance board guidelines for delivery of clinical social work services.
